"Prior to working with Glenn, we would spend far too much time trying to find the right person for our security company. Our employees must pass a rigid background test and Glenn's team saved us countless hours and money by doing all the vetting and providing excellent candidates. In addition to that, his teams approach to customer service...Fantastic!"

"As a small business owner, I don't have a lot of extra time nor resources to do a search for the right employee. I talked with Glenn and his team had the perfect employee at my office within the week. I was impressed, to say the least, on how quickly they responded and found this person."
