Specialized contract and search recruiting in:

- Information technology
- Energy Field Operations
- Government Contracting

Experience

With 15 years of experience in the recruitment industry, Sylvia partners with candidates to accomplish their goals in seeking the right consulting assignment or full-time career opportunity. Her commitment to both client and candidates attributes to her success in maintaining long-term relationships in the IT, energy operations, and government sectors.

Sylvia began her career in 1995 as an account executive and recruiter for an Oklahoma City-based consulting firm. Prior to joining the Express team, Sylvia was the managing partner for an agency focusing primarily in the information technology industry. In her current role as a contract specialist with the Specialized Recruiting Group, Sylvia is leveraging her experience with both the government and private sector to expand opportunities for potential candidates.
